You scour Etsy for thoughtful trinkets, hoard handmade cards for the right occasions and have a just-in-case closet full of presents in a pinch.

Heads up: two of Atlanta's craftiest chicks are about to help you step up your gifting game even more at their new Fabricate Studios (<http://www.fabricateatlanta.com/>) on the Westside. Score all of the DIY know-how you'll need to whip up a custom clutch for your next birthday bash or bunt a bride-to-be banner for your BFF's shower. Better still, classes held in the cozy studio feature hands-on tutorials and specialized workshops for all skill levels, and the monthly BYOC (craft) nights will have you and your wine-sipping crew Pinterest pros in no time.

Your move, Martha.
